nonsurgical nose job

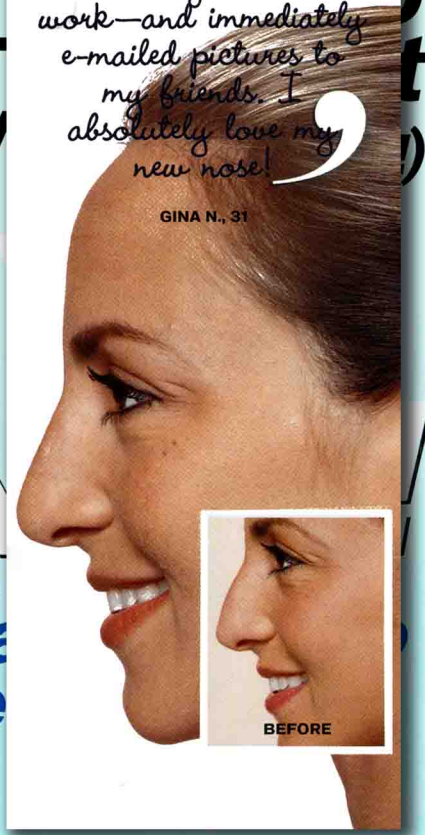

what it is The 15-Minute Nose Job (from $1,500; cosmeticlasersurgery.com for appointments or referrals).

what it promises FDA-approved cosmetic filler Radiesse is injected to recontour the nose. "It takes 15 minutes, lasts a year and there's no downtime," says N.Y.C. dermatologist Cameron Rokhsar, M.D., who performed this procedure.

what it delivered Gina N., 31, experienced slight swelling and bruising for about five days after the injections, but overall she says she's "thrilled with the results."

I went right back to work—and immediately e-mailed pictures to my friends. I absolutely love my new nose!
